Nail It Right Publishing Opens New Independent Publishing House in Parkland, Washington

Parkland, WA — Nail It Right Publishing officially opened its doors today, establishing a new independent publishing house dedicated to creating clear, accessible technology guides for beginners and late-in-life learners. The Parkland-based company aims to make modern technology easier to understand through simple explanations, step-by-step instructions, and frustration-free learning materials.

“Parkland is the perfect home for this new venture,” said Donald Vaughn, founder of Nail It Right Publishing. “Our mission is to help people who feel overwhelmed by technology. We’re building resources that meet them where they are — patient, practical, and easy to follow.”

The launch marks the beginning of a growing catalog of user-friendly guides covering essential digital skills, including smartphones, tablets, cloud storage, online safety, and everyday device basics. With a focus on clarity and real-world examples, Nail It Right Publishing is committed to empowering new users with the confidence they need to navigate today’s digital world.
